From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 7.

Madrid, August 22.

HE King has given the Governmens of Potosi to Don Fernando Chacon, who commanded the Quick-silver Ships, and was taken by the English at Vigo. His Majesty lately receiv'd the Compliments made him on the Part of the City of Mexico, by Don Gregorio Altamirano, on his happy Acceſſion to the Crown and on his Marriage. The Regiment of Horse Guards, the Queen's, that of Asturias, and the 2 Regiments of Dragoons of Catalonia, began their March for Eſtramadura on the 16th of this Month; they had lain encamp'd for ſome Time in the Wood of Luzon, and that day they march'd the King rode thither on Horseback to take a review of them, and alighting walk'd twice through all the Files, and found them in good Condition and well mounted. Then he order'd them to paſs through Madrid and take their March towards Eſtramadura. He stood at the Gate of Atocha and ſaw them all enter, and as the Troops advanc'd he call'd to every Captain, ask'd him his Name, what Military Services he had been in, how many Men rode in his Troop, and ſuch like Questions, with as much Attention as Goodneſſ. Then his Majesty put himſelf at the Head of these Regiments, and led them through the Prado and the Street of Alcalá, till they came before the Palace, where they fil'd off in preſence of the Queen, after the King had call'd the Officers about him, and given them a ſtrict Charge to ſee that their Troops obſerv'd good Discipline, that he might hear of no Complaints from the Places through which they paſſ'd. So they march'd out of the City to go and encamp at Naval Carnero on the Banks of the Guadarrama, being commanded in chief by Don Francisco Ronquillo Collonel of the Royal Regiment of Asturias. The Regiment of Irish Dragoons, which was likewiſe in the Camp at Luzon, will continue here ſome time longer; and ſo will another Regiment of Dragoons which is expected every day from Catalonia. On the 20th in the Morning, notwithstanding the exceilent Heat, the King having eaten at Moſtoles went to view his Troops at Naval Carnero, being follow'd every where by a vaſt Crowd of People, who are charm'd to ſee in him ſo much Activity and Application to whatever may contribute to the Safety and Glory of the Nation. His Majesty declar'd Don Joseph de Salazar General of the Cavalry, and Don Juan Ydiaquez Lieutenant General. He has likewiſe given the neceſſary Orders for Arms, Ammunition, and Provisions, to be carried to the Coasts, and dispos'd in ſuch Places where the Enemies might attempt to make a Descent. On the 14th 20 Waggonſ loaded with Powder were ſent to Valladolid, to be diſtributed on the Frontiers of Leon. The Count de Lemos Viceroy of Sardinia, has diſpatch'd a Courier hither exprefs, to offer to ſerve the King in Gallicia his Native Country in caſe his Majesty think fit. On the 17th was publifh'd the Sentence given, after long Deliberation, againſt the Amiralante of Caſtile, by which he is declar'd Guilty of High Treafor, and condemn'd to Death, and all his Estate confiscated to the Crown. The ſame Sentence has been pronoune'd againſt thoſe of his Domesticks who follow'd him.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 22.

Madrid, Sept. 5. On the 25th of laſt Month, being St. Louis's day, whose Name the Moft Christian King and the Dauphin bear, the King held a Solemn Chappel in his Palace, after which the Grandees richly habited kiſſ'd his Majesty's Hand: In the Evening an Italian Comedy was acted on the Theatre in Buenretiro. On the 27th the King went to Naval Carnero to take a review of the Cavalry encamp'd there, and which has not yet receiv'd Orders to March. A Regiment of French is begun to be rais'd, and to facilitate it, a General Pardon is publifh'd for all Deferters of that Nation, on condition they put themſelves into the Service of his Catholick Majesty. On the 28th of laſt Month 2000 Foot march'd towards Badajos. A like number of Foot arriv'd at Seville on the 21ſt, and have ſince continued their March towards the Frontier. 'Tis adviſ'd from Cadix, that on the 14th Ult. 6 Ships of the Enemies Fleet carrying French Colours appear'd before that Harbour and took ſeveral Barks; and that on the 24th the whole Fleet paſſ'd the Straits. An Advice Boat from America got ſafe into the Port of San Lucar in fight of that Fleet. Don Miguel de Arcapalo, the Viceroy of New Spain's Gentleman, who arriv'd in this Veffel, reports, that as he was coming out of the Channel of Bahama, he ſaw about 40 English Ships ſailing for England, ſome of which he believes had been employ'd in the Enterprise on Guardaloupa. He reports likewiſe, that at Jainaica the Negroes having rebell'd, were drawn together to the number of 14000 Men, that they ravage the Country and destroy the Plantations of the English, to whom they give no Quarter, especially ſince the latter having taken ſome of the Negroes burnt them alive. Lastly, That the Spaniards assisted by a great Number of Indians, had cut in pieces 500 English at Darien.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

Madrid, Sept. 5. An Express having brought to Court the News of the Death of the Marques de San Vincente Viceroy of Galicia, the King order'd the Council of State to propose ſome fit Person to him to fill that Place, which his Majesty conferr'd yesterday on the Duke of Ixar. Don Fernando Matanza has taken Possefſion of the Office of Corrigidor of this City, which had been executed for ſome time past by Don Francisco de Ronquillo who is with the Troops at Naval Carnero.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 4.

Madrid, Sept. 5. The Duke of Alva being recover'd of his Indisposition, the King ſignified to him by the Secretary of the Universal Dispatches, that within 3 days he ſhould ſet out on his Embafſy to France, or return the 12000 Piftoles that had been advanc'd to him towards the Charge of that Embafſy: Whereupon he has taken a Reſolution to be gone on the 9th; but he will ſtop at Tadraque, to wait for the Dutcheſs his Wife and his Son, with the reſt of his Retinue. The Cardinal d'Etrees is preparing to return to France: On the 28th of laſt Month Month the Abbot d'Etrees, Nephew of the Cardinal, receiv'd by a Courier from France a Commission to take upon him the Character of Ambassador of France. The Chamber of Commerce of Seville having desir'd the King to give Orders for fitting out the Galleons that lye at Cadix for the Indies, his Majesty has not only issu'd out Orders accordingly, but has remitted 24000 Crowns to Cadix to be employ'd towards equipping those Galleons.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 6.

Lisbon, Sept. 8. On the 3d the New French Ambassador Monsieur de Chateauneuf arriv'd here, was receiv'd by the Count d'Attogia with 4 of the King's Coaches and carried to his House; Yesterday an Express brought him Letters from Paris. A great many Spanish Foot Soldiers run away daily from Badajos to Elvas; the number of them that have deserted in one Month is 600; They complain that they could neither get Pay nor Provisions: 20 of their Horse have likewise come over to us; their Horses being claim'd by the Spaniards have been return'd, but their Cloaths and Arms refus'd. 3 or 4 days ago a Ship arriv'd here from the Maderas, with Letters from the Rio de Janeiro of the 3d and 10th of May; and some from Buenos Ayres for his Majesty: Since the Arrival of which Ship, a report has been spread, that the Spaniards of Buenos Ayres have built 2 Ports, which command the Castle of San Salvador on the Rio de la Plata yielded to this Crown on settling the Limits between the 2 Kingdoms; and that they have forbidden the Portuguese to hunt and kill any more wild Cattle in the Country thereto adjoining: Some add, that they have taken the Castle from the Portuguese, but this part of the Story at least requires Confirmation. This is certain however, that the Commerce of the Portuguese, which was very considerable in those Quarters, is at present at a stand. There is a Scarcity of Provisions in that part of Brazil which lyes on the Rio de Janeiro, and their last Crop of Sugar was but bad; but the first Ships that come from thence will bring home a good Quantity of Gold. The Inquisition have lately imprison'd several Persons accus'd of Judaism, and tomorrow being Sunday an Act of the Faith will be held, that is, a General Gaol Delivery of all that are now in the Prison of the Holy Office and have been convicted of Heresie.
